Doctoral Faculty News

Dean Shane P. Martin shared his reflections in The Tidings from the recent World Congress on Catholic Education.

Dr. Karie Huchting has been selected to be part of the Fulbright Specialist Roster. It is her intention to use the Fulbright Specialist to further her work with faculty at University of Notre Dame Haiti who teach research methods in their School of Education. The Fulbright Specialist Program promotes linkages between U.S. scholars and professionals and their counterparts at host institutions overseas. The program awards grants to qualified U.S. faculty and professionals, in select disciplines, to engage in short-term collaborative two- to six-week projects at eligible institutions in more than 140 countries worldwide.

Latino Civil Rights in Education: La Lucha Sigue, co-edited by Dr. Magaly Lavadenz, Director of the Center for Equity for English Learners (who also wrote multiple chapters), was recently published by Routledge. The book documents the experiences of historical and contemporary advocates in the movement for civil rights in education of Latinos in the United States. For more information, click here.

Dr. Elizabeth Reilly has been awarded an LMU Faith & Justice Curriculum Development Grant. Dr. Reilly will be revising Transformational Leadership for Educational Achievement by incorporating community-based learning (CBL) with the crosscutting themes of faith and justice for the Ed. D. in Educational Leadership for Social Justice. The inclusion of CBL will help to frame the students' thinking and actions about leadership and its intersection with faith, justice, and service.
