Diane Fogarty, M.A. (Cohort 11), has been promoted to Director of Clinical Partnerships and Practice at Loyola Marymount University.

Chris Thinner (Cohort 11) recently joined the #EduColor team, a group foregrounding the voices of public school advocates of color on equity, justice, and intersectional diversity issues in the national dialogue about education. In early October, he helped to facilitate the annual conference of #EdLeader21, a national PLC of school and district leaders focusing on system-wide integration of "the 4 Cs," as a consultant to EdLeader21's staff. Soon he will join the board of the Progressive Education Network (PEN) in Brooklyn to support "Access, Equity, and Activism: Teaching the Possible," PEN's national conference.

Please join us in congratulating Ana Ponce (Cohort 5) on the news that Camino Nuevo Charter Academy was named a Bright Spot in Hispanic Education by The White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics, recognizing Camino Nuevo as an organization that addresses or invests in key educational priorities for Hispanics. <http://www.publiccharters.org/press/white-house-initiative/>

Jennifer Grenardo (Cohort 2), Curriculum Coordinator at St. Matthew Catholic School, shared that their 7th grade class was highlighted in the October 2nd edition of Today's Catholic for incorporating social justice into their studies and reading novels about immigrants. The students are also creating and bringing in Courage Kits to help immigrants in need. Jennifer feels so blessed to be able to help teach others to serve those less fortunate.

Rafael Gaeta (Cohort 8) will assume the role of Principal at Nightingale MS in LAUSD on October 23.

Congratulations to all!

Students, parents, guardians, community members and all stakeholders are encouraged to submit their opinion via a survey to gather input on the importance of various characteristics in the search for the next LAUSD Superintendent. Click here to take the survey. For more information on LAUSD's superintendent search, please click here.
