

Long Term English Learners (LTEL) Institute

ONLINE PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Introducing the Long Term English Learners (LTEL) Institute!

This professional learning institute seeks to advance English Learner success by providing district, school-site and teacher leaders with the knowledge, strategies, and structures to transform policies and practices for students who meet Long Term English Learner (LTEL) criteria and to prevent ELs from entering LTEL status. The institute will support educational leaders in aligning systems, policies, and practices with state guidance and current research for multilingual learner success and to develop coherent, culturally sustaining approaches with service design and implementation. Participants will engage with and receive actionable tools for building integrated systems where multilingual students can thrive academically, linguistically, and socially.
