

ONLINE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Certificate in Leadership for Equity in Multilingual/English Learner Education

Loyola Marymount University Center for Equity for English Learners

GET 10% OFF
A TEAM OF 5
REGISTRANTS!

October 2025 - June 2026

WHAT IS THE CERTIFICATE?

This distinctive certificate program provides educators the opportunity to:

- engage in inquiry-based discussions and learning to develop essential leadership characteristics.
- be empowered to embrace advocacy roles that support system-wide change and increase equitable access to quality programs for Multilingual/English Learners.

Total fee of $648
for each 4 unit course!

Register Here

Questions? Contact us at ceel@lmu.edu

FULLY ONLINE PROGRAM

Courses are delivered through live webinars and flexible independent online sessions.

EARN UP TO 12 SEMESTER UNITS OF UPPER-DIVISION CEUs*

Instructional coaches, administrators, and teacher leaders will develop advocacy strategies and equity-based action plans in this state-of-the-art virtual learning community.

Our program provides educators with current research and knowledge in policy, programs, and instruction to increase Multilingual/English Learner achievement and multiliteracy.

NOW AVAILABLE!

Digital Badges and Micro Credential Included

* IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Prior to course enrollment, participants should check district requirements for continuing education unit (CEU) acceptance and salary point equivalency.
- These units apply toward the Leadership for Equity in English Learner Education Certificate but do not apply towards a degree at Loyola Marymount University.
- Visit our Website to read our policies about course date changes, cancellations, and refunds.