

ACE TEAM MEMBERS

Immediate openings are available at Westside Neighborhood School in our ECC and K-8 After Class Enrichment (ACE) Programs. These are either full or part time positions - hours ranging between 7:30a-5:30pm Monday-Friday.

Ideal candidates should have experience working with children in either an aftercare or camp experience setting. The ACE program's goal is to provide high quality and reliable after-school care to the families of Westside Neighborhood School. Our group of staff coordinate everything from supervision to leading structured activities such as art and crafts and creative projects. ACE is viewed as an extension of the WNS school day.

Westside Neighborhood School is a private independent school with over 520 students in Preschool- 8th grade. WNS is dedicated to excellence and the creation of a diverse faculty and staff that best represents our student body and the city of Los Angeles. WNS is located adjacent to Playa Vista and Loyola Marymount University about one mile from the Pacific Ocean. Westside Neighborhood School is an equal opportunity employer.
